Icpros Ltd is registered in St. Lucia with company number 2024-00012 and is authorized and regulated by the St. Lucia Financial Services Commission (“FSC”) with license number 2024-00012 to carry out certain categories of financial investment business as permitted under the St. Lucia Financial Services. The Company’s registered office is located at Ground Floor, La Place Creole Building, Rodney Village, Rodney Bay, Gros-Islet, St. Lucia. Please refer to the website of the Company for more information.

This Complaint Handling Policy (hereinafter referred to as the “Policy”) sets out the processes employed by the Company for the fair and prompt handling of queries, complaints and grievances received by the Company’s clients.

2. SCOPE

This Policy applies to the Company’s employees whereas it is subject to the approval of the Board of Directors of the Company, which is responsible for its implementation and for monitoring compliance with it. The present Policy includes the complaints’ management policy mechanism implemented by the Company and all the steps and procedures adhered to when handling clients’ complaints. The Company has implemented all necessary mechanisms in order to ensure the efficient handling of complaints by eliminating regulatory and legal risk exposure as well as supporting the long-term business operations of the Company therefore eliminating any potential reputational or operational business impacts.

3. COMPLAINTS’ HANDLING

The Company’s Complaints Management Function is responsible for the complaints’ handling. The Compliance Function of the Company maintains an Internal Complaints Register documenting the complaints received and the actions taken in that respect whereas it is also responsible for the analysis of the complaints and handling procedures in order to ensure that all issues which may arise are promptly identified and addressed according to the applicable framework.

4. DEFINITION OF A COMPLAINT AND COMPLAINANT

A Complaint is an expression of dissatisfaction by a client regarding the provision of investment and/ or ancillary services provided by the Company.

A Complainant is defined as any person, natural or legal, who has read, agreed with and accepted all the Terms and Conditions of the Company which are contained in the Client Agreement and without modifications, has opened a trading account with the Company and has submitted a Complaint.

5. PROCEDURE

Before submitting an official complaint, it is advisable that you first contact our Customer Support Department via email at help@itcpros.com, telephone or any other method of communication made available by the Company, as the vast majority of issues can be resolved at this level. Our Customer Support Department will try to resolve the issue immediately. If you are not satisfied with the response and explanation given by our Customer Support Department and you wish to file an official complaint, you may complete the official Complaint Form attached also herein (the “Form”) and submit it electronically to help@itcpros.com. The Company will not accept any complaint via other means or channels.

The Company shall acknowledge receipt of your complaint within five (5) business days from the receipt of your complaint. Once we acknowledge receipt of your complaint, we will review it carefully, investigate the circumstances surrounding your complaint and will try to resolve it without undue delay.

The investigation of the Complaint is subject to the provision of the correct information by the Complainant. All of the information requested in the online complaints form must be provided (among any other information requested by the Company) in order to enable the investigation of the complaint.

The Compliance Department shall thoroughly examine any Complaints as required (taking into account any information contained within the books and records of the Company, including but not limited to the client’s trading account journal) to reach a fair outcome.

The outcome of the investigation shall be communicated to the Complainant within two (2) months from the date of receipt of the Complaint.

If we do not reply within the above-mentioned period, you will be issued a holding response (in writing or other durable medium) where you will be informed of the reason/s for the delay and the period of time necessary to complete the investigation. This period of time shall not exceed three (3) months from the submission of the Complaint.

During the investigation process will keep you updated on the handling process of your complaint. One of our representatives may contact you directly (including communication by email or phone) in order to obtain further clarifications and information relating to your complaint. We will require your full cooperation in order to expedite the investigation and possible resolution of your complaint.

When the final decision of the Complaint does not fully satisfy the complainant's demands, the Company shall notify in writing the complainant using a thorough explanation of its position on the Complaint and set out the complainant's option to maintain the Complaint.

In case you are not fully satisfied with the Company's final decision, you may be entitled to raise your Complaint with the St. Lucia Financial Services Commission (FSC). You should note that the FSC will not attend your complaint, unless it is satisfied that the issue has been brought to the Company's attention first.
